

More Learning, Better Training

DCYF's New Training Site— Coming Soon!

December 14, 2022
Early Learning Division

Washington State Department of
CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILIES

We Imagine a Time When...

One-Stop-Shop

Find, complete and manage training progress:

- Licensing Orientation
- Subsidy training
- Child Care Basics
- CPR

We have heard...

1

“Grading [in the current training site] is terrible, going to each one and trying to track it. Hard to tell if folks were getting emails. Very frustrating.”

2

“Prefiero en línea, en las tardes. Sobre los entrenamientos en línea: más ideas para compartir, más oportunidades para conversar sería bueno tener” – Spanish speaking provider

3

“Participants [in online training] spent a lot of time trying to figure out what was incomplete/complete. Trainer could see it on their end, but the participant could not see it on their end.”

4

“Debe haber un enfoque simplificado en la forma en que comunicamos todas estas ofertas (capacitaciones, recursos, etc.), que venga de una agencia” — Spanish speaking provider

Supporting the Workforce

- Diverse workforce
- Accessibility
- Ease
- Meaningful

Activity: Pair Share

Tell us your experience:

- Searching trainings
- Monitoring training
- Supporting staff

Chat Box Waterfall

Type a theme or two from your Pair Share into the chat box but don't press send yet...

Personal Reflection

tinyurl.com/ReflectBoard

What would you like to see and do when:

- Searching/finding trainings
- Engaging in online learning
- Monitoring progress
- Supporting staff with training

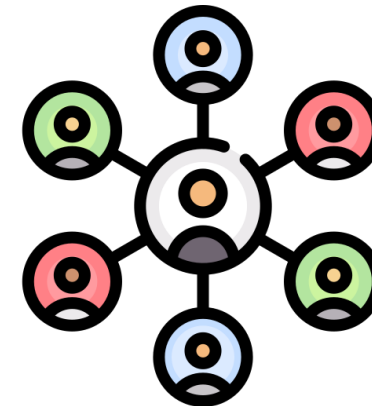

Activity: Engagement

Tell us!

- Who
- What
- When
- Where
- How

tinyurl.com/EngagementAct

Stay Up-to-Date!

All information shared on dedicated webpage:

tinyurl.com/DCYFsNewTrainingSite

Department of FAMILIES

Safety ▾ Services ▾ Our Practice ▾ Tribal Relations ▾ About ▾

> SERVICES > PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT > MERIT WORKFORCE REGISTRY > DCYF'S NEW TRAINING SITE

DCYF's New Training Site

We are excited to announce the implementation of a new Learning Management System (LMS) coming in 2023!

DCYF's New Training Site (which will be renamed later), will be a place to find training, complete training, manage training and conference/special events, and apply to become a state-approved trainer.

Key Features

DCYF's New Training Site will have features that will help our learners, training organizations and trainers access and navigate with ease. Some key features include:

- Automated alerts and notifications
- Simplified trainer application process
- Easier training search by topic, location, and more
- Blended and collaborative learning options, including integration

Contact

✉ merit@dcyf.wa.gov
☎ Phone: 866.482.4325, option 5

Engagement Efforts

We'll be announcing ways to get involved to provide feedback in the PD Newsletter:

SUBSCRIBE TO THE NEWSLETTER >

If you're interested in these efforts, email Marlene White.

Website

tinyurl.com/DCYFsNewTrainingSite

Contact

Karma Hugo: karma.hugo@dcyf.wa.gov

Marlene White: marlene.white@dcyf.wa.gov

